

Flower Shows

Olympia Garden Club participates in the Black Hills District Flower Shows including their Spring Show and at the Thurston County Fair in July. Members are active participants in all aspects of these shows, which includes set up and take down, being hosts and hostesses, and entering horticulture and designs.